Miicor Consulting to Bring the Power of Microsoft Dynamics to Small and Medium-Sized Businesses in Idaho

Boise, ID – September 13, 2006 – Miicor Consulting today announced that it has teamed with Microsoft Corp. to focus on providing Microsoft Dynamics to small and medium sized businesses in Idaho. Microsoft Dynamics is a line of financial, customer relationship and supply chain management solutions that helps businesses work more effectively. These integrated, adaptable business management solutions work like and with familiar Microsoft software to streamline processes across an entire business.

Miicor Consulting provides a fully-trained team of business, computer and software professionals dedicated to helping maximize the efficiency and profitability of the customer's business through use of such business solutions as Microsoft Dynamics GP and Microsoft Dynamics CRM.

"We are excited to be working with Miicor to help meet the unique needs of small and medium sized businesses in this region," said James Utzschneider, general manager of Microsoft Dynamics Marketing at Microsoft. "Miicor Consulting has proven that it is capable of providing the quality implementation and support service expected by Microsoft Dynamics customers."

In addition to Microsoft Dynamics, Miicor Consulting also supports its customers with Microsoft's broad line of office productivity products, server solutions, licensing & software asset management solutions and more. Miicor's team of professionals maintain current training and certifications of Microsoft solutions providing superior support and service throughout Idaho.
